	1. Rly Secretary's note no. 639 dt. 9th May 1916 soliciting orders of Govt re the order of the Engineer-in-chief for Rlys on Burn & Co. Madras for the supply of Iron Latrines without calling for tenders on the ground that latrines came under 'structural works' and not under 'stores' to which the Govt order of Dec 1913 applies.
	2. Fl. Asst Secy's (Mr. S. Shamanna) note dt 16.5.16.
	1. Though the articles supplied by Messrs Burn & Co. may have been of a particular type not procurable elsewhere, it would appear to be necessary to call for tenders, if it was not absolutely necessary to have this and if the Railway Department could have been satisfied with similar articles manufactured by other firms. There is nothing to show that the pattern supplied by Messrs Burn & Co was the only one that was desired.
	3. As regards the distinction drawn between 'stores' and 'structural works' it may be mentioned that the former expression was intended to apply to all articles of whatever kind required by Govt and was not used in any technical or restricted sense. It may be regarded as including the articles now purchased the character of which does not differ materially from that of other manufactured articles.

4 Fl. Secretary's Note, 16.5.16.

2- I agree with Asst Secy, Finance.

I certainly think that this was a case in which tenders should have been called for or Rule 16 of the purchase rules complied with. It may be made clear that the word 'stores' in the order includes manufactured articles of all kinds.

5 Dewan's orders, 18.5.16.

3- I agree with the Financial Secy that tenders should have been called for in the case in question. It may however be passed as a special case.

6 The word 'stores' is used only in the abstract of the order, though the rules themselves apply to all articles of purchase whether manufactured or not. The sense may however be made clear to avoid misunderstanding in future.

Order No. Fl. 1194-243—G. F. 10-15-98, dated 28th August 1916.

It has come to the notice of Government that some officers are under the impression that the rules contained in Government Order No. Fl. 2760-809—G. F. 214-10-88, dated 23rd December 1913, apply merely to articles denoted by the term "Stores" as used in some departments in a restricted sense. This, it is observed, is a mistake, due apparently to the fact that the term "Stores" has been used for the sake of brevity in the abstract of the Government Order. The order in question is intended to apply to all kinds of articles whatsoever, whether manufactured or unmanufactured.
